

Contents

Kristóf Nyíri: Preface	15
THE GLOBAL AND THE LOCAL
Joshua Meyrowitz The Rise of Glocality New Senses of Place and Identity in the Global Village	21
Mark Poster Digitally Local Communications Technologies and Space	31
Raimondo Strassoldo The Meaning of Localism in a Global World	43
Leopoldina Fortunati The Mobile Phone: Local and Global Dimensions	61
Chantal de Gournay – Zbigniew Smoreda Space Bind The Social Shaping of Communication in Five Urban Areas	71
R. H. R. Harper The Local and the Global: Paradoxes of the Mobile Age	83

MOBILIZATION: WELFARE, WAR, AND THE PUBLIC SPHERE

Shizuka Abe – On-Kwok Lai

Mobile Communicative Actions
in (Anti-)Globalization Processes

Social Agencies and the State in an Information Society 93

Peter Fleissner

Welfare and Warfare

Contrasting Scenarios of Mobile Communication 105

Akiba A. Cohen – Dafna Lemish

When the Bombs Go Off the Mobiles Ring

The Aftermath of Terrorist Attacks 117

Endre Dányi

WLCM 2 UROP

Interconnected Public Spheres

in the Age of Mobile Communication 129

Gordon A. Gow

Pinpointing Consent

Location Privacy and Mobile Phones 139

PUBLIC TO INTIMATE

Kathleen M. Cumiskey

“Can you hear me now?”

Paradoxes of Techno-Intimacy Resulting from the Public Use of Mobile Communication Technology

151

Joachim R. Höflich

A Certain Sense of Place

Mobile Communication and Local Orientation 159

Michael Bull
The Intimate Sounds of Urban Experience
An Auditory Epistemology of Everyday Mobility	169
Klára Sándor
Mental Safety in Your Pocket	179
Lin Proitz
Intimacy Fiction
Intimate Discourses in Mobile Telephone Communication amongst Norwegian Youth	191
Christine Dietmar
Mobile Communication in Couple Relationships	201
Nicola Döring – Katharina Hellwig – Paul Klimsa
Mobile Communication among German Youth	209
THE COSTS OF ATTACHMENT
Jane Vincent
Are People Affected by Their Attachment to Their Mobile Phone?	221
Leslie Haddon – Jane Vincent
Making the Most of the Communications Repertoire Choosing between the Mobile and Fixed-Line	231
Fernando Paragas
Migrant Mobiles
Cellular Telephony, Transnational Spaces, and the Filipino Diaspora	241

Bella Ellwood-Clayton
Texting and God
The Lord is My Textmate –
Folk Catholicism in the Cyber Philippines 251

Lyn-Yi Chung – Sun Sun Lim
From Monochronic to Mobilechronic
Temporality in the Era of Mobile Communication 267

Dimitrina Dimitrova
Work Relationships and Communication
in Distant Work 283

Jonathan Donner
The Mobile Behaviours
of Kigali's Microentrepreneurs:
Whom They Call... and Why 293

LEARNING THROUGH IMAGES

James E. Katz
Mobile Phones in Educational Settings 305

Lynn V. Marentette
Thinking, Learning, and Communicating through Multimedia
Views from a School Psychologist 319

Rich Ling – Tom Julsrud
Grounded Genres in Multimedia Messaging 329

Ilpo Koskinen
Seeing with Mobile Images
Towards Perpetual Visual Contact 339

Virpi Oksman MMS and Its “Early Adopters” in Finland	349
Barbara Scifo The Domestication of Camera-Phone and MMS Communication The Early Experiences of Young Italians	363
Kristóf Nyíri Images of Home	375
Viktor Bedő MMS of All Knowledge (MMSAK) Mobiles and Scientific Visualization	383
Zsuzsanna Kondor The Iconic Turn in Metaphysics	395
Gábor Szécsi Electronic Communication and Semantic Globalization	405
LEARNING FROM NETWORKS
Albert-László Barabási Science of Networks From Society to the Web	415
György Csepeli – Gábor Csere Inequalities and Networks in Society	431
Balázs Szekfű – Zsuzsanna Szvetelszky The Emergence of Gossip Effects of Networked Communication Technologies on the Evolution of Self-Organizing Social Beliefs	439

Friedrich Krotz Mobile Communication, the Internet, and the Net of Social Relations A Theoretical Framework	447
Michael Hulme – Anna Truch Social Identity The New Sociology of the Mobile Phone	459
Notes on Contributors	467
Index	483